MAJOR GRAPE: PETIT MANSENG

BLEND: PETIT MANSENG,

GRENACHE GRIS, GRENACHE

BLANC, MARSANNE, ROUSSANNE,

ALBARIÑO, VERDEJO, MACCABEU

Although grown in the Corbières region, the wine bears the simple classification Vin de France since vintage 2015 because it is made from an array of grape varieties, including several non-traditional in the appellation.

« A crescendo of flavours with a long, sure finish.

A real beauty. Tastes more than twice the price. »

Tamlyn Currin (JancisRobinson.com)

« Palate is bright and lively with excellent focus and mouthwatering freshness. »

Decanter World Wine Awards

« Exotic and intriguing [...] A lovely glass of wine. »

Rosemary George MW

« Whites and Rosés are delicious. »

Bettane & Desseauve

« Wonderfully original and delicious dry white. »

WHAT THE PRESS

IS SAYING

FIRST LAUNCH: VINTAGE 2011

APPELLATION: AOP CORBIÈRES

MAJOR GRAPE: SYRAH

BLEND: SYRAH, MOURVÈDRE

Starting from vintage 2016, our cuvée Classique will be rebranded as Essentielle. The core concept of the wine remains unchanged : offering a pure though modern and juicy expression of Corbières appellation.

« All the roar and sunshine of Corbières but without its sometime surliness. Threaded with garrigue, dried rosemary. Wonderful pure expression of Corbières. »

Tamlyn Currin (JancisRobinson.com)

« The 2016 Corbières is a charmer. »

Jeb Dunnuck (JebDunnuck.com)

« Impeccably balanced [...] (it) has a seamlessness that makes you want to take another sip. »

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate

« Well-made and classic in style, it's a workhorse style Corbières. »
